

The Annual Halloween Parade

When: Sunday, October 23, 2011

Where: Parade starts at Stony Brook School

Time: Register at 12:00 – Parade starts at 1 pm

Cost: free

All North Plainfield residents are invited to participate in our annual youth Halloween parade and festivities with Special Grand Marshall, Mayor Janice Allen

Residents dress-up in their best costume on the Sunday afternoon before Halloween, get a number and march from Stony Brook School to Lower Krausche field (NPHS track behind school).

in case of inclement weather, parade will be in NPHS gym.

Awards are given to kids for the following categories:

Most Original - Group

Most Original - Individual

Cutest - Individual

Scariest - Individual

Best Superhero - Individual

Funniest - Individual

Prettiest - Individual

Enjoy:

Mummy Races,

Blow-Up

Haunted House

Have a safe and fun
Halloween!

Go to northplainfield.org for trick-or-treating hours

For more information, go to <http://www.np-recreation.com>

This is a North Plainfield Community Event Sponsored by North Plainfield Parks and Recreation